

Position: Content Curation Internship - Nursing & Midwifery focus

Organization: SolarSPELL (Solar Powered Educational Learning Library)

Location: Tempe; Remote

Application deadline: July 28th, midnight (AZ/MST)

Start date: August 18th

Type of internship: non-paid; part-time

Description: SolarSPELL is seeking part-time interns to curate regionally-relevant, open access, educational content for the Nursing and Midwifery collection of the SolarSPELL digital library.

Potential content curation project areas are included below. In your application, please indicate if there are specific projects that you feel you have the skillset for because this will strengthen the application.

SolarSPELL is an offline, digital library initiative at Arizona State University that provides localized educational information and the training to build 21st-century skills in offline environments that may lack electricity, internet connectivity, and/or traditional libraries. We work with in-field partners, like the Peace Corps and the UN Refugee Agency, to build local capacities and ensure long-term, sustainable impact.

Users connect to the SolarSPELL offline, digital library over WiFi, using any WiFi-enabled device (smartphones, tablets, laptops) to freely, and safely, surf thousands of resources that are carefully curated and continually improved to meet local information needs.

More information on SolarSPELL can be found here:

<http://solarspell.org>

This internship offers an exciting opportunity to contribute to improving the quality of educational information available to students and teachers around the world, whose schools may lack internet connectivity, electricity, and/or traditional libraries. Your contributions will be brought to the field and used by teachers and students, potentially within months of your internship!

Interns will be expected to attend an orientation session and content curation training workshop at the beginning of the semester, and weekly virtual check-ins throughout the semester. Ideal candidates will be detail-oriented and proactive in their content curation tasks.

- 1) Nursing and Midwifery Library Collections
 - a) Research, review, and curate educational content about various medical topics including COVID-19; dentistry; optometry; global standards of practice and care; research methods, guidelines, and protocols; women's health promotion and general midwifery topics; and pediatrics.
 - b) Information Literacy and Digital Literacy content for health instructors and students
 - c) Health literacy content for health instructors and students
 - d) Curating general reference materials and teaching materials focused on medical education
 - e) Review content websites that we regularly curate from for updates (Open Michigan, MIT Open Courseware, Khan Academy, etc)
 - f) Review existing content and identify new content that can be added to our current library modules; identify new interactive, educational modules that can be added to our libraries (example: Global Health Media videos).

Other general tasks might include:

- Feedback on current user interface and library organization/navigation
- Metadata work, including tagging and organizing of content within the library

Database

- General research on regions and countries of implementation
- Checking content websites we regularly curate from for any new content

How to apply: Please send a resume and cover letter to Courtney Finkbeiner at courtney.finkbeiner@asu.edu. Your files should be in PDF format and follow the naming convention of LastName_FirstName_CV (resume) or LastName_FirstName_CL (cover letter).