About the Internship

The SolarSPELL Initiative at Arizona State University is seeking a team of interns who are passionate about science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) to curate regionally-relevant, open-access, educational content for our offline digital library.

Interns will review and evaluate STEM resources for learners in SolarSPELL's target regions, including the Pacific Islands, East Africa, and Southern Africa, ensuring content is:

- Engaging and age-appropriate
- Aligned with local curricula
- Culturally respectful
- Suitable for offline use in resource-limited contexts

You'll also help identify gaps in our library and hunt down innovative new materials that foster curiosity and foundational STEM learning.

About SolarSPELL

SolarSPELL (Solar Powered Educational Learning Library) is a global educational initiative based at ASU. We create offline, solar-powered digital libraries designed for areas with little to no access to electricity or internet. Our libraries provide a WiFi hotspot that enables free access to curated educational resources via any smartphone, tablet, or laptop.
